Once upon a time there was a beautiful girl whose mother had died. Her father remarried a woman with two very envious daughters.

One day, her father had to go away on a long journey, leaving her alone with her stepmother.

"Goodbye my child, be good!"

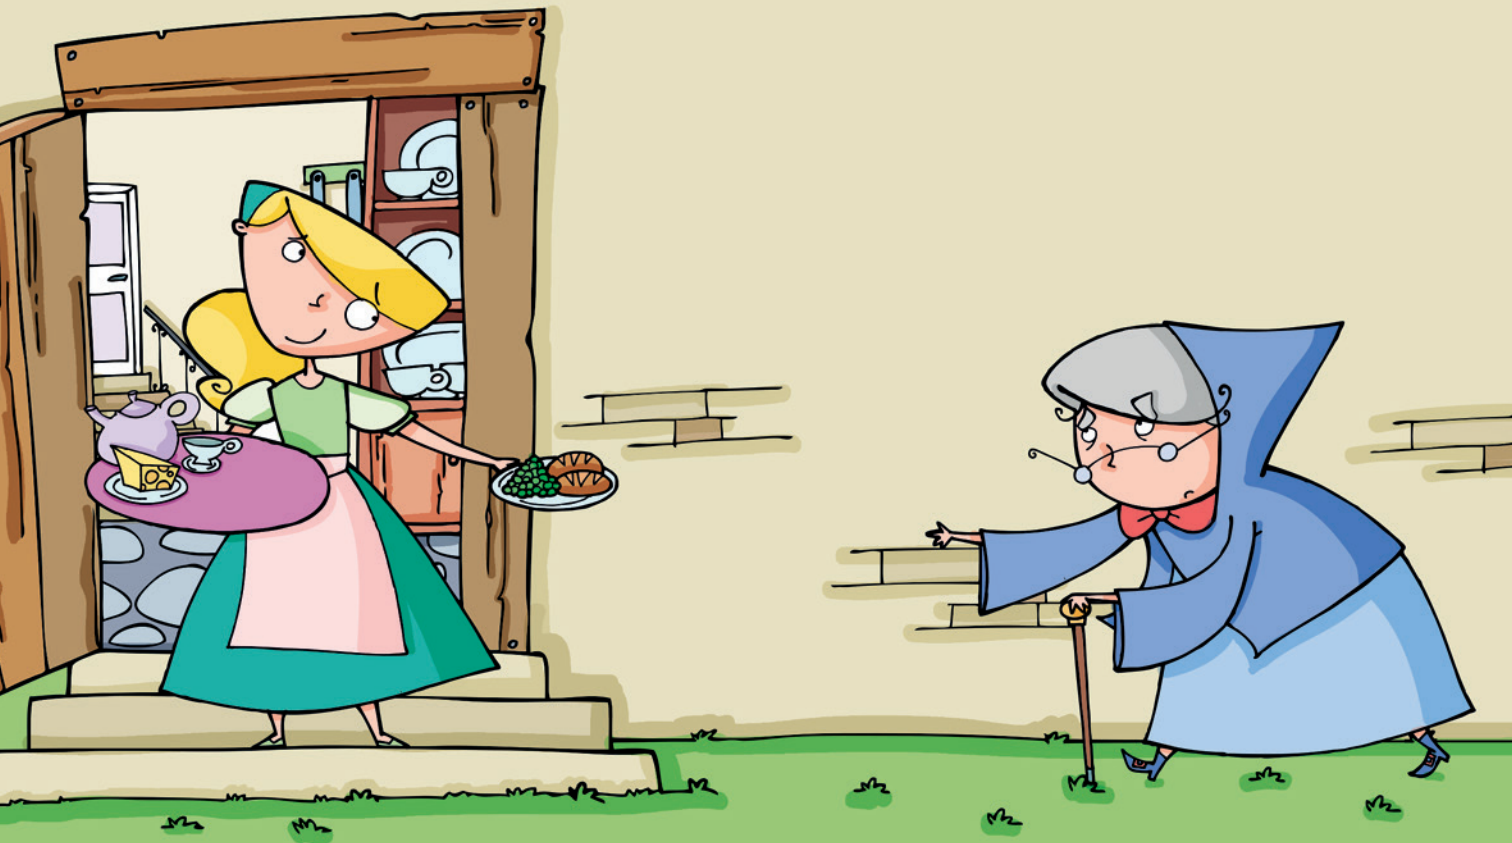

"Goodbye father, come back soon!"

Over time, the stepmother's treatment of her got worse and she forced her to do all the household chores... That is why she was always covered in dust and cinders.

"Dirty girl, hurry up! You still have to wash the clothes, wash the dishes and sweep the kitchen."

One morning, an old beggar woman arrived.

"Oh, beautiful child, your face ashen with cinders, could you spare me something to eat?"

"Take these peas and this stale bread, it is all I have to eat."

"Thank you, sweet Cinderella, your kindness is your greatest beauty."
