Once upon a time there was a very poor woodcutter who lived near a forest with his wife and his two children: Hansel and Gretel.

There came a time when the harvest was so bad that they had nothing to eat.
"How will we feed our children?" asked the father.
"They will starve to death," sobbed the mother.

Hansel and Gretel heard the wails of their parents and decided to leave home at dawn.
"Gretel, we should look for food."
"Yes, Hansel, let's go."
